

10,000m級無人探査機「かいこう」ビークル漂流事故の捜索について

田代 省三* 渡邊 正之* 門馬 大和*

Abstract

Deepest Remotely Operated Vehicle "Kaiko", owned by Japan Marine Science and Technology Center (hereafter; JAMSTEC), had lost own vehicle during the research operation by the accident of snapping the secondary. JAMSTEC and other Japanese governmental organizations searched the missed vehicle as well as we could. However, it has been missing ever since. The search activities, which many Japanese organizations cooperated and carried out, are summarized in this subject.